Privacy Statement
Please be assured that the information you provide in your membership application is used solely by Carers NSW to provide member services, in accordance with the Constitution of Carers NSW Limited. Your information is stored securely in electronic and paper-based storage facilities and is protected from unauthorised access and will not be disclosed to a third party except in accordance with the Carers NSW Constitution or as required by law. You can access and update your information by contacting Carers NSW. As a member of Carers NSW, your name, address, membership number and date of joining is recorded on our Membership Register, which may be viewed by any current member in a manner relevant to the interests or rights of members and in accordance with applicable privacy law. More information on privacy and your information can be found on our website www.carersnsw.org.au/footer/privacy or by contacting Carers NSW.
Member Rights and Responsibilities
In accordance with the Carers NSW Constitution, members have the right to: receive notice of, attend and vote at general meetings; to nominate eligible individuals for election to the Board; nominate any person for consideration by the Board for life membership; and receive information about and the opportunity to participate in Carers NSW activities. Membership is terminated if a member resigns in writing, fails to notify Carers NSW of a change of address, or dies; or for organisations if they fail to pay membership fees or are dissolved or de-registered. Details of membership can be found in the Constitution of Carers NSW Ltd located on the Carers NSW website www.carersnsw.org.au/news-events/events/agm or by contacting Carers NSW.
