Digital innovation expert, Dominic Campbell, confirmed for Carers NSW Biennial Conference
'Let's revolutionise caring: inclusion, innovation, diversity'
21-22 May 2015
Novotel Sydney, Olympic Park

Internationally renowned digital and social innovation expert, Dominic Campbell, will deliver a keynote address 'Elegant technology, for good – how digital is changing the way we care' and facilitate a masterclass 'Design thinking and doing digital: rethinking care services' at the 2015 Carers NSW Biennial Conference.

Held on 21-22 May 2015 at Novotel Sydney, Olympic Park, the conference will bring together professionals from across the broad spectrum of carer related fields to explore the themes of inclusion, innovation and diversity.

One of the keynote speakers at the conference, Director and Founder of FutureGov, Dominic Campbell has been supporting government in the UK and Australia in the areas of business improvement and citizen engagement. FutureGov's recent work has focused on carer services and how digital innovation might transform the relationship between public services and the carers they support.

Carers NSW CEO, Elena Katrakis said "We are so pleased to have Dominic as a keynote speaker at our conference. His background, experience and expertise will undoubtedly provide great insight and inspiration for everyone at the event."
